

Basic Core Construction Skills Training & NCCER Certification

Wilson Community Improvement Association (WCIA) and Wilson Community College are offering an opportunity to receive FREE training in basic core construction skills and certification from NCCER - the National Center for Construction Education and Research.

Begins Jan 12 • Tue & Thur • 8 AM - 5 PM

WHAT YOU WILL LEARN:

Basic Construction Site Safety • Construction Math • How to Use Hand Tools
How to Use Power Tools • Material Handling • How to Read Construction Drawings
Introduction to Rigging • Communication Skills • Employability Skills

FREE

ELIGIBILITY:

- Open to Six (6) Unemployed People
- Must be Interested and Committed to a Career in Construction
- Agreement to Attend and Complete the Course (enrollment includes Free Roundtrip Transportation between Downtown Wilson and Wilson Community College)

To register, or for more information, contact:
Wilson Community Improvement Association (WCIA)
252.243.4855

